Dear Sir:

In response to your card, I am wondering whether the enclosure will be of interest to you. As you doubtless know, our Society issues medals from time to time in an attempt to stimulate and develop appreciation of this side of the sculptor's art. Very rarely do the issues show a surplus unless they are heavily subsidized by some individual. In consequence this is not a commercial proposition.

The Paul Revere Medal to which you find reference made in the circular was designed by the man who made the Peace Dollar and we think it a very creditable piece of work. If you care to have photographs I can supply them.

I cannot think of anything else which would be of interest to your readers which we can send you at the present time.

Very truly yours

SPH C

Secretary

THE ART WORLD MAGAZINE of THE CHICAGO EVENING POST

Requests to be put on your mailing list for everything of ART INTEREST you may be sending out—announcements, books, catalogs, circulars—anything of News Value and especially PHOTOGRAPHS. And when, from time to time, you have something of particular interest to Chicago and the Middle West, we should like a Special Story, always with Pictures, when possible.

The Art World Magazine, now entering upon its second year, is not a "trade publication," but observes in its editorial columns the high ethical standards of the great newspaper of which it is a part. When we accept your news and photographs for publication, we put you under no obligations. We reserve the right, of course, of selection and rejection from material submitted. Address all communications to
